LIFE AND TIMES OF HANK GREENBERG

BEST DOCUMENTARY- NATIONAL SOCIETY OF FILM CRITICS
GEORGE FOSTER PEABODY AWARD WINNER

SUNDAY, AUGUST 14, 6 P.M.

HARBOR CINEMA, MUSKEGON

FOLLOWED BY DISCUSSION WITH WILLIAM M. ANDERSON.

Aviva Kempner's tribute to Detroit Tigers legend Hank Greenberg, hailed as "a grand slam" by the Wall Street Journal has been named one of the best sports films ever made. A post film discussion led by Bill Anderson, author of The Glory Years of The Detroit Tigers will also showcase highlights from the world's largest collection of Tigers' memorabilia.

This special event kicks off the Harbor's Indie Film Series which showcases classics on the second Sunday of the month in partnership with the Heartland Independent Film Forum. Kempner who became a diehard Tigers fan growing up in Detroit tells the inspiring story of baseball's first Jewish star set against the backdrop of the Depression and the World War II era. Greenberg's decision on whether or not to play a championship deciding game during the Jewish High Holidays is a landmark in sports history.

The Bill Anderson led discussion will also bring the Tigers story up to date and give fans a chance to learn more about their favorite stars. William M. Anderson is the retired founding director of the Michigan Department of History, Arts, and Libraries, Dr. Anderson is a widely published baseball and Civil War historian. He will be signing his two classic Detroit Tigers books.

LOOK FORWARD TO MORE INDENDENT MOVIE SHOWINGS AT THE HARBOR ON THE 2ND SUNDAY OF EVERY MONTH AT 6:00PM.
